

BIOGRAPHY

Robert H De Barr FRICS

Robert (Bob) De Barr qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1975 and after a spell in agency joined Land Securities in 1977.

Having been involved for 30 years in all aspects of retail property, including asset management, leasing, development and marketing, he is now Director of Development Partnerships within the Retail Business Unit at Land Securities and has been responsible for the formation and ongoing management of the group's major partnerships, in particular the Birmingham Alliance and the Bristol Alliance as well as having responsibility for various development projects within the partnerships.

He is a Board Member and Past President of the British Council of Shopping Centres, a Member of the BCSC Government Affairs Committee and was Chairman of the BCSC Conference and Retail Showcase 2001. He is also a Member of the International Council of Shopping Centres, Urban Land Institute and the Broadmead Board.

Outside of the office his interests include golf, surfing, soccer and music.